A splendid and valuable lot of furniture, will be offered at public sale by F. P. HURXTHAL, at his residence in this place on be favorable to prohibition. the Tuesday of the Court. See card.

Our lady readers who desire to send to Philadelphia for Millinery, &c. &c., will find the establishment of JANE MILLER at No. 8 South Sixth St., upper side, where all orders will be punctually attended to.

It will be seen in another column, that BLAIR & BARRETT have opened the MOUNT VERNON for the reception of visiters. We wish them abundant success, and have no doubt our Clearfield friends visiting the City, will in Harrisburg at that period? and did you not welcome reception.

The Administrator's accounts, passed by the Register, will be found in another col-

"Secure the shadow, 'ere the substance fades," and call at Purviance's Daguerrean Gallery on 2nd st., two doors north of Powell & Co's. Store.

DF It is always a good plan for men in business to settle up their accounts regularly .-JAMES B. GRAHAM, adopting this course, calls peremptorily upon those having dealings with him to come forward and settle up.

Those of our farmers who have orchards, should procure one of Hickok's portable cider mills, which are represented as one of the very best articles of the kind ever invented. L. R. CARTER, is the agent in this place.

BF The time will soon be here, when our readers will require a good warm fire, beside which to enjoy the Journal, and they should look out for fuel, 'ere itarrives. Those desiring a good article of coal can obtain it on application to W. L. MOORE, whose orders will be filled at his Coal Bank, adjoining town. See eard.

Our friend BRIDGE, who is a clever feltakes beautiful pictures, and we have no doubt those of our readers who give him a call, will receive entire satisfaction.

DF In another column it will be seen that a valuable farm, near New Washington, is offered at private sale, by Mr. John Shetter. This is a good piece of land, in a good locality, and possesses excellent and commodious improvements. See card.

The 'Corporal' in his perigrinatius a few days since, while searching for the 'Know Nothings,' observed a crowd pouring into the room next door to the Journal office. Of course he followed, but discovered the cause of attraction to be a splendid and cheap assortment of boots and shoes, recently opened there by C. S. Black. From the excellent quality of his work, the 'Corporal' come to the conclusion that CHARLEY did'nt belong to the Order.

DOT It will be seen that D. W. Robbins & Co., at Lumber city, have dissolved partnership. The Books and accounts are in the hands of D. W. Robbins for settlement.

By reference to the Brigade Orders, in another column, it will be seen that an election is to be held for Major, in place of Tuos. H. Fulton, deceased. We hope they may get as good a man to fill the station, as our lamented

T.M. A. FRANK Esq, informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his business stand two doors east of the Journal office, in Graham's Row, where he will be happy to attend to those who may give him a call.

IT If any of our friends have legal business to transact in Philadelphia, they cannot place it in better hands, than our friend WASH. L. BLADIN, Esq., whose card may be found in another column. He is a good lawyer and a clever fellow, and will do full justice to his clients. Office No. 66 South 6th St.

We request the attention of our readers to the card of Hughes & Invin in another column, the proprietors of the Tyrone City Hotel. Give them a call, when you visit Tyrone, if you wish to be well treated, and get acquainted with a couple of clever fellows.

We see by a card in another part of our paper, that our friend HARTSHORN, whom we announced sometime since as having retired Judge Black can summon the Spirit-Rappers, to private life, has again launched his craft, a Lumber City. HARTSHORN & McCRAKEN, are doubt .- Chester Republican. a pair of "sound eggs," as the boys say, and if you want cheap goods just give them a call.

We call attention to the list of Sheriff's Sales in another column, by which it will be seen that a large quantity of valuable property will be exposed to sale at the September Court. Speculators will have a first rate opportunity to make profitable investments.

The Clearfield Academy will be opened on the 4th of September next, under the direction of W. A. CAMPBELL, A. B. This institution is much needed, and we hope, as the trustees have gone to a great deal of trouble to secure the services of a good and competent Principal, that it will be well sustained by our citizens.

We call the attention of painters, and others to the fact, that a large and excellent Supply of White Lead and Linseed Oil, has Just been received at Mossor & Pottanfr's.

Philadelphia Temperance Nominations The prohibitory liquor law men of Philadelphia met in convention on Monday of last week, and named a number of candidates for the Legislature. We select the following from their resolutions, to show what stuff the convention was made of:

Resolved. That the enactment of a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage in the State of Pennsylvania is essenbought cheap of W. M. REEDY, at Curwens- tial to the moral and political welfare of the

> Resolved, That it is the duty of every good citizen to so far disregard the ties of political parties as to cast his vote and use his influence so as to secure the election of men known to

> Resolved, That no person shall receive the final nomination of this Convention, who will not give a pledge in writing to advocate and vote for a prohibitory law in case of his election to the Legislature.

The convention will re-assemble on the 18th inst., to make final nominations.

A Word with You, Governor.

Will your supreme Excellency be kind enough to explain your connection with the Native American Party and movement in the campaign of 1851 ?- Did your Excellency contribute towards a Native newspaper published call where they will always meet a warm and falsify your promises to the poor editor who was green enough to put faith in your word? Your object was to raise a schism between the Democratic and Whig elements-which formed the Native American Party-and the game succeeded; didn't it, Governor? But like a scurvy politician, you forgot your pledges, and they stand to this day on record as an evidence of your ingratitude!-Blanche's Sunday Press.

We have waited for ten days, to hear from some one of the Governor's organs relative to the above charge, but they are now trying to deceive Protestant, foreigners, as they did the Native American party in 1851, and it does not suit their purposes to refer to history, particularly if it refers to transactions more than a year old. Mr. Blanche, at the time of the last Gubernatural campaign, edited a Native American paper in this place, and for some reason, he and his friends a short time before the election, dropped Governor Johnson and spoild our calculation several hundred votes. Had the contribution in question anything to do with this charge? Come, Mr. Blanche, give us a history of the entire transaction .- Telegraph.

A Sad Story. The following extraordinary case occurred in Mississippi under the slave law of that

A planter was afflicted with a loathsome disease! So offensive were the ulcers that he was deserted by his white friends; and while thus afflicted and forsaken, a girl whom he owned as a slave, kindly and patiently waited upon him, dressed his ulcers, cleansed his person, and watched over him until he even actually gether affectionately for many years, reared a family of children, and, as he lay upon his death-bed, by will he divided his property between his wife and children. His brothers mended the property. The widow and children were indignant at the demand. They too were seized, and the validity of that marriage was tried before Judge Sharkley, of that State, who decided that the whole matter was a fraud upon the law of slavery-that the property belonged to the collateral heirs. His widow was sold by the surviving brothers, the children were bid off at public auction, and both mother and children now toil in chains or sleep in servile graves.

BRUTALITY PERSONIFIED.—The Baltimore Patriot of July 31st, says :- We learn from Capt. Hewell, of the Middle Watch Station. that a man came to the lock-up last evening and claimed shelter for the night under circumstances of a peculiar nature. His head was completely shaved, not a vestige of hair 14th Division Penna. Volunteers, at the election being upon the cranium-in fact, nothing visible but the bare scalp. His back was one mass of coagulated blood, caused, he said, by fifty stripes being inflicted upon him at Fort McHenry. In answer to questions from the captain, he stated that he had been a soldier in the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort McHenry, and that he had deserted, and on being arrested was sentenced to have his head shaved, to receive fifty lashes upon the bare back, and be drummed out of the service, which had ac- | English studies. cordingly been done. Since writing the above we have learned that the name of the mutilated man is Patrick Kelly. We also understand that the two buglemen who were detailed to lash him are now under arrest because they did not lay on the lash with more severity. It is said they will also be punished.

THE IMPORTANCE OF VOTING .- In announceing the result of the late election in North Carolina, the Fayetteville Observer states that the contest for the Legislature was exceedingly close. In Bladen county, Mr. McDugald was beaten by 22 votes; in Sampson, Mr. Slocum by 7; in Forsythe, the Whig candidates by less than 20; in Washington and martin, the Whig Senator by 23; in Craven, by 5; in Brunswick, by 25; in Chowan, by 2; in Pitt, one of the Democrats is elected by three votes, another by one, and a Whig by four; and in many other counties the Whigs have lost by similar small majorities.

"RED SPIRITS AND WHITE."-All parties are invited to come into the democratic fold, and aid in the election of BIGLER, BLACK & Co., next October. Rev. John Chambers will muster the temperance men, Gov. Bigler will take care of both sides of the Nebraska bill, Mott will muster the Know-Nothings, Charley Brown will take care of the "Furriners," and if their aid should be required. If everybody votes for Bigler, he will be elected beyond
